HOW TO PLAY

WEAPONS AND OBSTACLES:

Gun Emplacements

Beware of these guns as you fly through the Space Fortress.
Receive 200 or 500 points for each gun you destroy
Scoring for destruction is random
Destroy them before they demolish you

Enemy Planes

Enemy planes are parked on the ground in the first Space Fortress and also flying in Outer Space.

Be careful of their fire. When you destroy planes still on the ground you reduce the number of planes you'll face in space.

Planes are worth 100 points whether they are hit on the ground or in Outer Space.

For each round of play the value of the planes increases by 50 points.

Earn a 1,000 point bonus if you destroy all the planes in Outer Space.

Fuel Tanks

Demolish enemy fuel tanks and you receive 300 points plus your spacecraft's fuel supply is replenished.

Watch your supply—If you run out of fuel you'll crash!

Radar Towers

Radar towers are difficult to destroy because of their location.

Demolish one and score 1,000 points!

Robot

Face the ultimate challenge.

You must hit the ROBOT directly 6 times to destroy him before he launches his missiles.

If you're successful, you'll score 1,000 points.

YOU MUST HIT THE ROBOT!

Robot Missile

Encounter the deadly ROBOT missile at the end of the second Space Fortress.

Be careful, once this missile is launched the missile or even its shrapnel can destroy you.

Destroy it and receive 200 points.

STRATEGY TIPS

Game Indicators

The bottom of your screen indicates number of spacecrafts in reserve and your fuel level. Check the left side of your screen for your spacecraft's altitude. Your spacecraft will cast a shadow to help you determine its position.

First Space Fortress

Watch out for the fire of the gun emplacements.

Be careful not to crash into the radar towers, fuel tanks and gun emplacements as you fire at them.

Navigate your spacecraft through openings in the walls to fly safely over the force field.

Use your altitude indicator to determine your positioning.

Outer Space

Outer Space is filled with deadly enemy planes. Destroy them or they'll destroy you. You automatically lose altitude. You can still navigate left and right. As you enter the second fortress, leaving space, you regain your climbing ability.

Second Space Fortress and ZAXXON Robot Encounter

The second Fortress will challenge you to even more lethal force fields and walls. If you're to survive you'll have to pinpoint your craft through the openings of the force fields and walls.

The end of the fortress brings you to your encounter with the ZAXXON robot. You're fair game for the missiles of ZAXXON. Your defensive abilities are the key to your survival as you fire at ZAXXON. You must destroy the Robot before he launches his missile to survive the Robot Encounter.

If you survive through the Space Fortresses, Outer Space, and your ZAXXON Robot Encounter, take a breath and prepare for more of these space challenges that demand greater navigation and firing skills each round.
